

NEW SHEPHERD FILMS AWARDS INTERNSHIP TO LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT.

May 15, 2017 | New Shepherd Films, Santiam Christian Schools

Salem, OR – May 15, 2017 – New Shepherd Films, LLC announced the award of an internship in Digital Media to Miss Madison Wobig, a rising senior at Santiam Christian School in Adair Village, OR.

Internship positions at New Shepherd Films are competitive and, traditionally, have been limited to 3rd and 4th year undergraduate college students as well as students in accredited graduate programs. Miss Wobig is the first-ever high school student offered an internship with New Shepherd Films.

In a statement from New Shepherd Films' President/CEO Jim Huggins, "I discovered Santiam Christian School's Fine Arts Program has a number of high school students with exceptional talent and a genuine love of the Lord. Thus we've made the effort to create opportunities in several areas; most notably digital arts and writing (both screenwriting and manuscript development) where these students can learn and contribute to the entertainment industry. A great example is Madison Wobig, a rising senior at SCS, who was accepted into our program under Digital Arts. This is a first for us as well as SCS and we're excited about the potential Miss Wobig brings to our mission."

Huggins went on to add, "What's amazing is that we've discovered SCS is a well-kept secret in the Willamette Valley. I think it's time for the secret to be revealed!"
